Heather,

Do you have a response you could provide to Hanady regarding EPA's oversight role? I will try to look as well.

Topic: You may be aware that the state of Alaska passed Senate Bill 27 last session, which looks at taking over wetlands 404 primacy from the EPA. If the state were to do that, would it affect the EPA's authority to pursue a 404(c) action if it decided to do so?

Action/Outcome: No answer to this in FAQs, to my knowledge. Can Rick, Sheila, or Palmer take a crack?

Status: (Open/Closed/Pending): Open
